Early Electronic Music

Late 1940s- Early 1960s

Playlist

https://open.spotify.com/playlist/4upYY7rNlqvUncZHdCBiCX?si=ZE6I75PiSRWi1tkZ87Y5iw

Tape Music: Musique Concrète GRM, France

Compositions made with turntables and tape from a variety of source material.

- Pierre Schaeffer
- Pierre Henry
- Bernard Parmegiani
- Luc Ferrari
- Mireille Chamass-Kyrou

Pierre Schaeffer

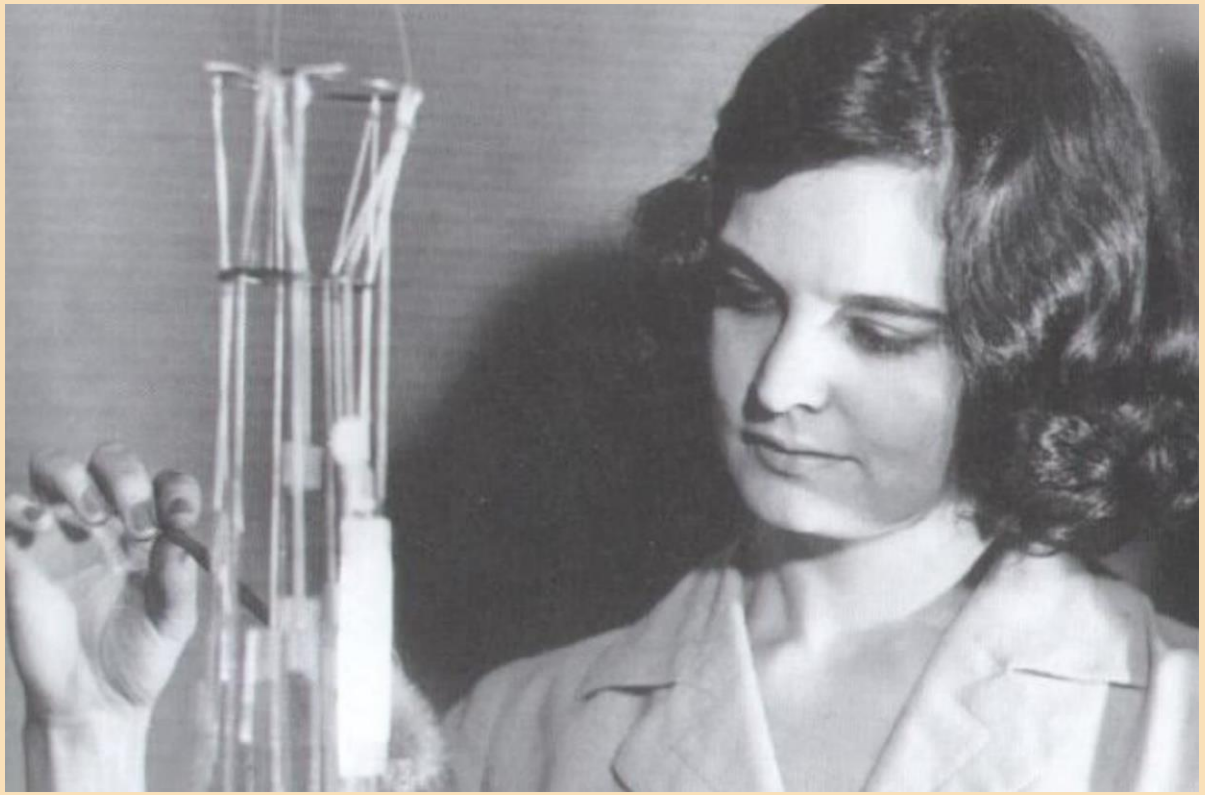

Pierre Henry

Composed piece that became Futurama theme

Mireille Chamass-Kyrou

Elektronische Musik: WDR, Germany

Concepts drawn from serialism, "pure" electronic tones from synthesis

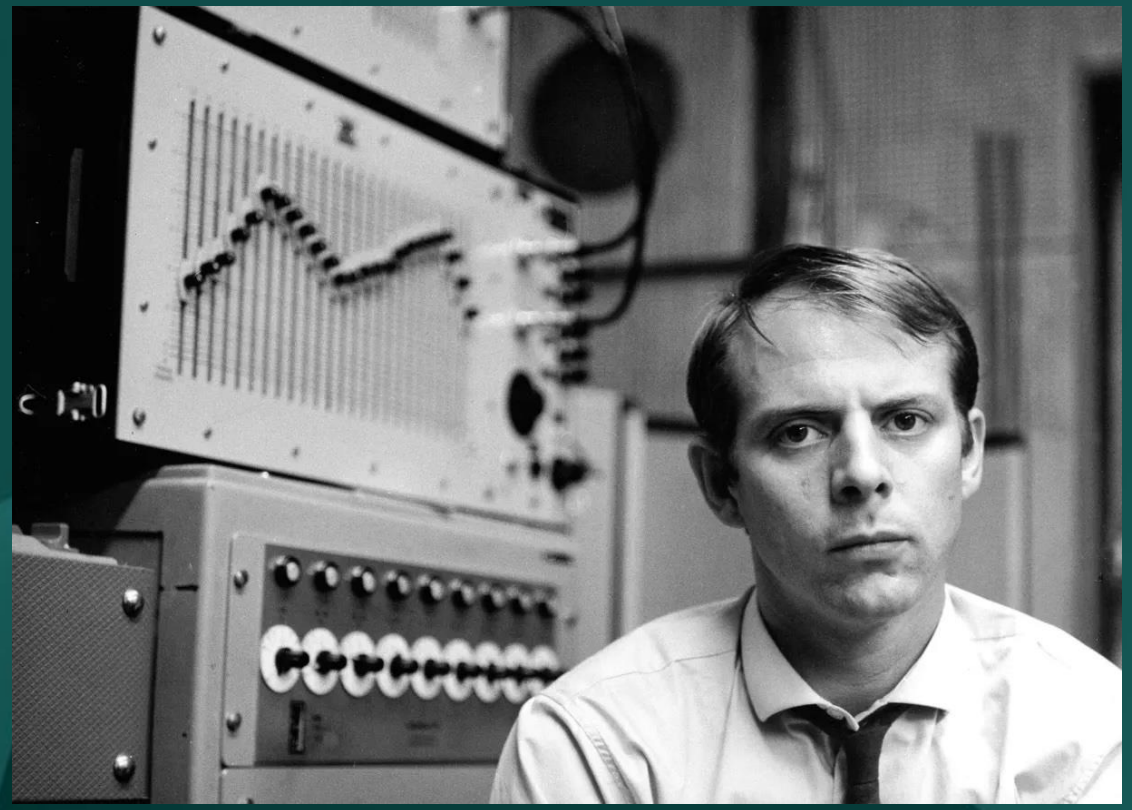

Founded by Werner Meyer-Eppler, Robert Beyer, and Herbert Eimert (Klangstudie I & II)

Stockhausen eventually combined WDR ideas and GRM (Gesange der Junglinge)

WDR Studio

Karlheinz Stockhausen

Other studios & composers

Composers important to early electronic music outside of GRM & WDR:

- Edgar Varese (Philips Pavilion)
- John Cage (USA)
- Louis & Bebe Barron (NY)
- Delia Derbyshire (BBC)
- Vladimir Ussachevsky (Columbia NY)
- Daphne Oram (Oramics Machine)
- Iannis Xenakis

There are many others, as well.

Columbia Tape Music Center

Vladimir Ussachevsky and Otto Luening + Milton Babbit

Delia Derbyshire

BBC Radiophonic Studio

and Dr. Who theme

https://www.bbc.com/historyofthebbc/100-voices/pioneering-women/women-of-the-workshop/delia-derbyshire

Daphne Oram

Oramics Machine

https://www.daphneoram.org/oramicsmachine/

Edgar Varèse

Poème électronique
Philips Pavilion at Brussels World's Fair 1958

Louis & Bebe Barron

Forbidden Planet sound track & recordings for Williams Mix

John Cage

Williams Mix, Cartridge Music

